 - b. Requires Underwriter approval
- Properties with evidence of careless maintenance, housekeeping, inadequate electrical wiring or plumbing systems not conforming to current code requirements.

OLDER HOME GUIDELINES

Generally speaking, homes that are over 35 years old require some extra T.L.C. Homes over 35 years of age must meet the following conditions:

Roof:	A roof that is in good condition. If repaired or replaced, please provide date of completion and an explanation. (Indicate if this is repairs only or full replacement.)
Electrical:	Electrical circuits that are in good condition and are on modern circuit breakers, not fuses. If replaced or updated, please give date and extent of work done.
Plumbing:	Copper or plastic pipes and modern fixtures that are in good condition. If replaced or updated, please provide date and extent of work done.
Heating:	A thermostatically-controlled heating system. If the system has been replaced or updated, please provide the date of completion and extent or work done.

Note: Homes must be up-to-code. An Older Home Questionnaire must be completed and submitted with the application.

Age Group Factor

Homes built 35 or more years ago are surcharged as follows:

Age of dwelling/surcharge

35 years –	3%
36 years –	6%
37 years –	9%
38 years -	12%
39 years –	15%
40 years –	18%
41 years –	21%
42 years –	24%
43 years –	27%
44 years -	30%

Any home that has been completely rebuilt from the ground up, including remodels with an existing wall to preserve original code regulations will be assigned a new year built date based upon the completed construction.

Company General Rules

ADDITIONAL INSURED

Generally co-owners, executors, administrators, trustees, and beneficiaries may be named as additional named insureds on the policy. In the case of co-owners, the named insured will be the occupant of the residence with the remaining owners listed as additional named insureds. A policy should not have more than two Named Insureds. If someone is helping the insured qualify for financing, they can be added as an additional insured providing they do not reside in the same household and we have their residence address. (Governmental Agencies or Departments will not be permitted as Additional Named Insureds.)

BINDERS

Risks must be approved by Cabrillo General. Risk may not be bound by the broker.

BUSINESS PURSUITS

Some insureds may have business operation exposure while being employed by someone else and are not self-employed. The Business Pursuits Coverage can cover these exposures. (See the "Homeowners Program" section of this manual and endorsement HO 24 71.)

Business Pursuits Liability Insurance
Limits of Liability
Coverage E	$100,000	$300,000
Coverage F	$1,000	$1,000
Classification
1	$4	$4
2	$5	$7
3	$10	$13
4	$4	$6

CLAIMS REPORTING

Notice of loss must be forwarded to the Company immediately upon notification to the Broker. Losses are to be reported on the proper ACORD form. Water damage losses, major fire losses, and all liability losses involving bodily injury should be called or faxed into the Claims Department upon notification.

COMPREHENSIVE PERSONAL LIABILITY

Minimum Liability limits - $100,000/$1,000. Maximum Liability limits - $500,000/$1,000.

FINANCING, POLICY PREMIUM PAYMENT PLAN

Money is required with all new business submissions, unless an impound account is involved. A check for the annual premium, or down payment, must be collected by the broker.

If the insured is to pay the premium and does not wish to pay the entire annual premium, the insured may elect to use either the Two Payment or Four Payment options detailed below, by submitting the first installment payment prior to the effective date of the policy.

Note: All billings are direct bill

BILLING CYCLE

New Business: We require down payment when the application is sent unless mortgagee billed. Billings are due in 20 days or the policy effective date, whichever is later.

Renewal billings: are sent out approximately 20 days before the renewal date and is due on the renewal effective date.

Installment Notices are sent 13 days before the installment due date.

Final Reminder Notices are sent to the insured or the mortgagee and insured, if Mortgagee billed – after the billing due date. Due date is 13 days from mailing date.

Notices of Cancellation are sent to insured, broker and mortgagee after the Final Reminder Notice due date. This is a “10-day notice of cancellation” (notice must allow 13 days from mailing date). Payment must be received in our office by the cancellation date to be eligible for reinstatement.

If a Notice of Cancellation is sent out for a second time, we will not reinstate. Payments received will be applied to any earned premium. Unearned premium will be returned.

FORECLOSED/SHORT SALE PROPERTIES-

Dwellings which are purchased through foreclosure or short sale require an inspection report to document any existing damage. Underwriter must approve before binding.

CANCELLATIONS

Cancellation at the request of either the insured or the Company shall be computed on a pro rata basis.

The insured may cancel the policy at any time during the policy period by returning the original policy or submitting a signed Lost Policy Release to the Company. Backdating a cancellation is not acceptable without supporting evidence of a similar coverage or a release of insurable interest such as Escrow Documents. All cancellation and non-renewal notices must have proof of mailing by the US Post Office.

Cancellation Restrictions

Policies which have been in effect for 60 days or more can be cancelled by the Company only after sending the insured 30 days notice and then only for one of the following reasons:

1. Conviction of a crime which involves increasing the hazard;
2. Discovery of fraud or material misrepresentation;
3. Discovery of grossly negligent acts or omissions which substantially increase the hazard;
4. Physical changes in the property that makes it uninsurable.

LIBERALIZATION CLAUSE

If during the policy period, any broadened coverages are adopted without additional premium charge, those broadened coverages will immediately apply.

MID-TERM CHANGES

For increases in amount, the additional premium shall be pro rata of the difference in appropriate term premium for the revised and former amounts of insurance, both based on current premium tables. For reductions in amount, the return premium shall be pro rata of the difference in appropriate term premiums for the revised and former amounts of insurance. Both are based on the premium rates in effect when the policy was written.

NON-RENEWAL

Company-Initiated: If the Company decides not to renew a policy at the end of a term, Notice of Non-Renewal will be sent at least 45 days in advance of the policy expiration date. The notice of Non-Renewal will be sent to the named insured, the mortgagee, and the broker. All cancellation and non-renewal notices must have proof of mailing by the US Post Office.

ADDITIONAL RESIDENCE PREMISES

We will furnish the HO 24 70 (Additional Residence Premises, Rented to Others) endorsement under a Homeowners policy. Endorsement is limited to rentals with not more than two (2) family units in each property.

PERSONAL INJURY LIABILITY

The homeowners policy can be endorsed to provide coverage for personal injury to others. This includes coverage for false arrest, malicious prosecution, wrongful eviction, slander, libel, or privacy violations. Use Personal Injury Endorsement (HO 24 82).

RENEWALS

Renewals are automatically prepared and sent approximately 60 days before the renewal date. The renewal rates will be those rates in effect at the time.

New forms or endorsements will be issued only in cases where they have been revised.

VACANT AND/OR UNOCCUPIED BUILDINGS

Vacant, seasonal, or otherwise unoccupied buildings may not be written.

WHOLE DOLLAR RULE

Round off all premiums and totals to whole dollars.

TRANSFER OR ASSIGNMENT

Transfer or assignment of insurance to a new owner is not permitted

Earthquake Coverage Program

GENERAL

Earthquake coverage is written as an endorsement to California Mutual Insurance Company's Homeowners policies. .

California law requires us to offer earthquake coverage to our insureds. This coverage may be purchased at an additional cost. The insured must ask the Company to add Earthquake coverage within 30 days from the date of mailing of the Earthquake Coverage Notice or it shall be conclusively presumed that they have not accepted the offer. The coverage will not be available for two years if not accepted as above.

MORATORIUM

If an earthquake should occur and a client contacts you requesting coverage, our policy is as follows:

1. There will be a 30-day Moratorium from the time an earthquake is registered and hits a reading of 5.0 or higher.
2. The Moratorium will apply to the county where the earthquake occurred and all adjacent counties.
3. If the registered reading is less than 5.0, the Moratorium will not apply.

DESCRIPTION OF COVERAGE

1. Basic Earthquake Coverage

Our Earthquake coverage is a blanket coverage. Add coverages A, B, C & D together before multiplying by the rate. If the customer desires a lower amount of coverage, we must have a signed statement from the customer, confirming that they realize they are not purchasing the full amount of coverage to cover their risk.

Engineering Services and Demolition Cost –(if EQ loss exceeds the deductible)

California Mutual will pay up to 10% of the EARTHQUAKE LIMIT for payment of services, except as provided by public entities, for the purpose of structural engineering costs to determine the habitability of the residential dwelling or coverage for the homeowner's liability for the actual costs of residential dwelling demolition due to structural condemnation as the result of damage or loss from the peril of earthquake. This coverage is additional insurance.

Use endorsement MS-EQ for EARTHQUAKE for both Homeowners and Dwelling Fire policies.

2. Reconstruction Cost Coverage (if EQ loss exceeds the deductible)

This optional coverage is available only if the insured has basic earthquake coverage and after the insured has completed and the insured has verified steps to fit or retrofit the insured residential dwelling to reduce the earthquake damage hazard.

For an additional premium, we will pay up to ten thousand dollars ($10,000.00) for the purpose of reconstruction costs required to bring the insured residential dwelling up to required current local residential building code standards, as required by the local government entity as part of the approval of the reconstruction permit process after a covered loss from the peril of earthquake. This coverage is additional insurance.

Use endorsement MS-EQR – Reconstruction Cost.

DEDUCTIBLE

The earthquake deductible is 10% of the EARTHQUAKE LIMIT. The deductible applies to the total loss for all covered property per occurrence.
